Art 123 and Art 213 of the Indian Constitution provide ordinance making powers to the President of India and the Governor of states respectively.

Ordinance Repromulgation - fraud on constitution and democratic subversion

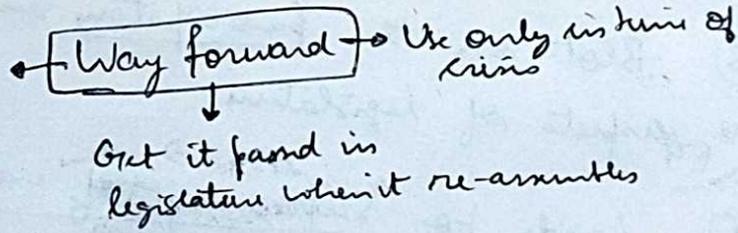

- ① It is violation of separation of powers as bypasses legislation.
- ② It leads to subordination of parliamentary democracy.
- ③ Blot on the participatory and representative aspects of legislature.
- ④ Leads to supremacy of executive over other organs.
- ⑤ SC judgments related to ordinance
 - (a) RC Cooper case - Ordinance is subjected to judicial review
 - (b) DC Wadhwa case - repromulgation of ordinance without scrutiny of legislature is illegal

- ② Chandra Kumar Case - Ordinance should be used in rarest of rare cases.

Necessity of Ordinance making power

- ① The present order is very dynamic.
- ② Executive, therefore needs a way of quick response to problem. COVID-19 pandemic disrupted parliamentary proceedings.
- ③ Regular chaos in parliament, leading to poor efficiency.
- ④ Parliament is not active throughout the year. To deal with sudden situations.

What can't be done by legislature in normal period shouldn't be enforced by ordinance

Ordinance making power is a necessary component of constitution, which should be used to deal with crisis and not to bypass the democratic process.

Basic structure doctrine is an Indian judicial innovation, that was introduced by Supreme Court in the famous Kesavananda Bharati case.

Importance of Basic Structure doctrine

- ① It is necessary to check and ensure that the government is bound by constitution, i.e. follow constitutionalism.
- ② It is necessary to uphold Art 50 and ensure separation of power between organs.
- ③ SC is the guardian of FR of citizens, therefore to fulfill its duty it is necessary to have a testing stone.
- ④ Basic structure doctrine helps in ensuring a system of check and balance as provided by constitution.
- ⑤ Supreme court is also guardian of constitution therefore to uphold constitutional morality and check that basic pillars are safe, basic structure doctrine is important.

Criticisms of Basic Structure Doctrine

- ① It is very open ended and no particular list is mentioned.
- ② The list of things included in doctrine can be updated anytime by judiciary.
- ③ This may lead to establishment of Judicial Supremacy in the country.

Basic Structure Doctrine is a necessary innovation that ~~can~~ helps judiciary test the actions of executive and legislator. However, a more comprehensive and transparent process of adding items needs to be followed.

Diaspora refers to the people of Indian origin, NRI, OBI etc who live outside India. India has around ~20mn diaspora, one of the largest in the world.

Significance of diaspora

- ① Help in country's soft power.
- ② More people to people contact.
- ③ Agent of social change in country.

Role in enhancing economic and Strategic interests

① Economic

① Remittances bring in much needed foreign exchange.

② Act as sources of FDI for India.

③ The remittances in rural areas serve as lifeline to rural demand.

② Strategic

① Helped in India's Civil Nuclear Deal with USA.

- (b) Spread Indian culture and knowledge to the world. Hence enhances India's soft power.
- (c) Help in shaping position usage of the country
 Any Indians are only 1% of USA population, but are one of the richest communities.

Challenges of diaspora

- Gulf
- Kabala law
 - Exploitation
 - Nitagat law
 - Long work hours
- Western World
- Racism
 - Underpaid
 - Poor FDI rate as compared to China

Way forward

- Better agreements with countries wnt to our diaspora.
 - Events like Pravasi Bhartiya Diwas
- Strong stand against to integrate them with country racism and discrimination at multilateral forums.

Indian diaspora is one of the most significant diasporas in the world, and are important for India's global interest. Therefore, relevant policies need to be adopted for their safety and integration.

(Candidate must not write on this margin)

National Green Tribunal (NGT) was set up in India in 2010. It is a statutory body with judicial powers. India is 3rd country to have such tribunal after Australia and Switzerland.

Importance of NGT for environmental governance

- ① Right to clean environment is part of Art 21 under MC Mehta case as per Supreme Court.
- ② NGT therefore protects our Art 21.
- ③ It helps to penalise various industries by imposing fine on polluters.
- ④ It regulates the fire cracker and associated laws in India Delhi.

- ⑤ Appeal against NGT's rulings lie with SC within 90 days of ruling.

Challenges in functioning

- ① The ruling can be appealed in Supreme Court, no binding jurisdiction.
- ② No wide consultation with NGT is carried out before framing environmental laws.
- ③ Its offices are present in just 7 cities, therefore, is not accessible throughout the country.

NGT is a comprehensive body with less powers in the area of jurisdiction. Its effectivity needs to be enhanced to enable it to better uphold Art 21 of people.

Judicial activism refers to the Suo-moto and over arching participation by judiciary in executive and legislative functions. Justice Chinnappa Reddy, PN Bhagwati were the first ones to use this in India.

Judicial Activism: A safety valve

- ① Legislature sometimes doesn't legislate on sensitive issues. Judicial activism fills the legislative vacuum.
- ② Judicial activism also upholds the system of checks and balances in country.
- ③ High + Supreme Court Courts are guardians of FR. Judicial activism and review are tools in the process.
- ④ Judicial activism has led to many reforms like :- Vishaka Guidelines became POSH Act, 2013, Triple Talac Banned, Musain Ara Khatoun Can for UCC

⑤ Judges also want to be a part of Social development. Judicial Activism helps them in this part.

⑥ It protects from arbitrary action of executive and legislature.

⑦ PIL has increased Judicial Activism.

Loopholes of Judicial Activism

① The judges are not democracy band but meritocracy band.

② The represented and elected heads should form laws and implement them, not the selected bureaucrats.

③ It leads to conflict between various organs of government.

④ Judiciary already has huge pendency of cases. First that needs to be taken care of.

Judicial Activism is a good development, but it should not transform to Judicial Overreach. Separation of power must be ensured, hence judges need to practice Judicial restraint.

Art 326 of constitution provides right to vote to every person in the elections without discrimination on basis of Caste, class, race, sex etc

State funding of elections refers to the budgeting of election expenditures from public exchequer.

Benefits of State funding of elections

- ① It will reduce the money and muscle power in politics.
- ② It will help tackle problem of Criminalisation of Politics.
- ③ Elections to 17th Lok Sabha were the costliest elections of the world. State funding would limit own expenditure on elections.
- ④ It will ensure incumbency so that not well to do merit can also fight elections.
- ⑤ Dinesh Gupta Committee, Indrajit Goswami Committee, 2nd ARC, Law Commission, etc have Supported state funding of elections.

⑥ It will help ensure transparency in funding of political parties and reduce corruption in elections.

⑦ Electoral bonds are a step towards ensuring transparency.

Challenges in State funding

① Government already has load of welfare schemes to cater to-

② There are criticisms that black money will be used over and above sanctioned amount in state funding.

③ This will further widen the gaps between the candidates.

State funding of elections is a good step towards accountability and transparency in elections, but needs to take into cognisance wide variety of reasons and time horizon that an equal footing is available to everyone.

Recently government, introduced the Multi-state Cooperative Societies (Amendment) Bill, 2022 in the parliament. Multi-State Cooperative Societies are under concurrent list in Schedule VII.

Provisions of the Bill

- ① It provides easy merging of any cooperative Society into multi-state cooperative society.
- ② Bill seeks to amend Multi-State Cooperative Societies Act, 2006.
- ③ It has provisions for establishing 'Election Authority' in cooperative Society to ensure transparency in election process in cooperative Society.
- ④ It provides for establishment ~~development~~ MSCS fund to revive the sick multi-state cooperatives in need of money.
- ⑤ Bill increases punishment and penalty for offences

⑥ provides for formation of Cooperative Ombudsman to ensure proper grievance redressal.

Challenges of amendment

- ① Issue of federalism as cooperatives are under State list.
- ② Some states criticised the bill on the basis of overruling their power.
- ③ Some MSCS has protested on the provision of funding the rehabilitation fund from their profits.

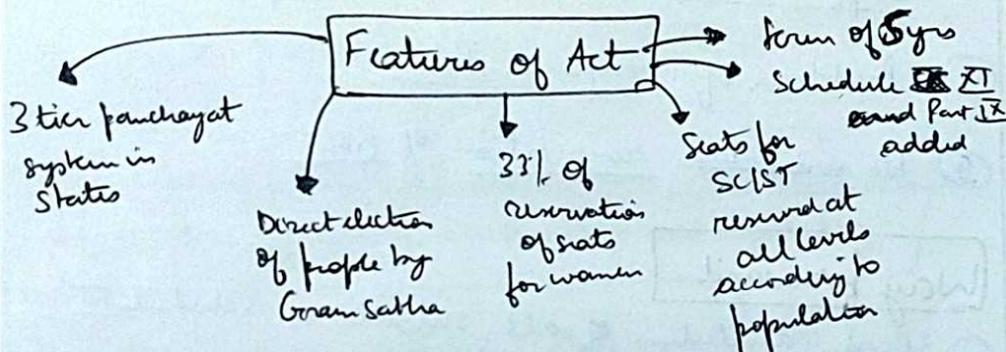

Multi-state Cooperative Societies are an important factor of economic collectivism and democratic welfare of people. Therefore relevant amendments need to be made.

73rd CAA, 1992 transformed India from procedural to participatory democracy. It led to constitutionalisation of Panchayats and improve the local self governance of country.

Benefits of 73rd CAA, 1992

- ① Representation → Participatory Democracy
- ② Followed bottom up approach.
- ③ Art 40 of Constitution based on Grandhian principles fulfilled.
- ④ Reservation for women, SC, ST a progressive step for welfare of minority.
- ⑤ A structured organisational system of Panchayats set up to be followed by state.

Loop Loopholes of 73rd Amendment

- ① Lack of function devolution by state government to Panchayat.
- ② Paucity of funds with panchayats.
- ③ The functionaries in Panchayat are not their staff.
Staff is hired by state for Panchayat.
- ④ Problem of Sarpanch Pati.
- ⑤ No reservation reservation of DBL.

Way forward

- ① Proper devolution of all subjects in Schedule VI like Kerala.
- ② Untied grants to be given to panchayats.
- ③ Recruitment by Panchayat for staff.

73 AA, 1992 changed the face of Indian democracy by following bottom up approach. But due to above challenges, functioning of Panchayats is paralysed. Also politicisation of lowest level has begun. Therefore these challenges need to be resolved.

Delay in Population census has the potential to affect the efficacy and efficiency of developmental initiatives. Discuss. (150 words) 10

Recently India's decadal population census for year 2021 was again delayed until 2025. Population census helps in listing the number of people and various demographic factors in the country.

First population census was carried out in 1871 by Lord Mayo.

Effect on efficiency in development by delay

- ① It leads to improper delimitation of seats in the legislature.
- ② Proper designing of policies requires exact data and figures of demography.
- ③ Distribution justice of resources is impaired.
- ④ Indicators like sex ratio are required to understand the progress of country for gender equality steps.

Article 44 of the Indian Constitution provides for establishment of Uniform Civil Code (UCC) in the country. It is part of Part IV of constitution, i.e., DPSP. UCC refers to the common application of laws in areas of marriage, divorce, inheritance, adoption etc.

Need for UCC

- ① To uphold Art 14 - Right to Equality of women. Because due to lack of UCC they don't have rights of inheritance and divorce in some areas.
- ② To reduce the complexity of civil laws. Due to presence of civil laws of various religions, it becomes complex for judiciary.
- ③ This will also reduce burden on judiciary and decrease judicial pendency.

④ will enhance the ideals of Secularism as secularism is part of Bare Structure Doctrine.

⑤ It will improve fraternity of the nation and increase nationalism, because everyone will be governed by same law.

⑥ will help in codification of laws and precedents.

⑦ Judicial judgements like Musain Ara Khaton, Shah Bano, Daniel Latifi will be upheld.

⑧ Law Commission, ARC all support it

Challenges in implementation

① It has 'one size fits all' approach, therefore will be at debate with Art 25 of Freedom of Religion.

② Minority community has not raised demand for UCC. Therefore fear of 'majoritarianism'.

③ It is part of DPSI, which are non ~~advised~~ justiciable in nature.

16. वैश्वीकरण के युग में, विदेश नीति को आकार देने में पैरा डिप्लोमेसी की अवधारणा का महत्व उत्तरोत्तर बढ़ा है और यह अंतर्राष्ट्रीय संबंधों में उपराष्ट्रीय अभिकर्ताओं की बढ़ती भूमिका को प्रदर्शित करता है। भारत के संदर्भ में सविस्तार वर्णन कीजिये। (250 शब्द) 15

"In the era of globalization, the concept of Para diplomacy has become increasingly important in shaping foreign policy, highlighting the growing significance of subnational actors in international relations". Elaborate in the context of India. (250 words) 15

Para diplomacy is defined as interaction between constituent units of country (for y states in India) with other foreign nations or their constituent states or provinces.

Increasing para diplomacy

- ① To attract FDI in the states.
- ② To enhance competitive federalism in the country.
- ③ To ensure development benefits reach to the backward states also. UP doesn't get much FDI due to landlocked nature.
- ④ National talks are more emphasised on benefit of the country. They can't emphasise on state basis.

Growing significance of sub national actors in IR

- ① State Governments are the first contact

of people with administration. Therefore they can better represent people.

② A healthy competition between states will nudge them to do better.

③ UP Govt interacted with tech company. Gujarat Govt struck a deal with Foxconn to establish their plant in the state.

Para diplomacy is a new front that will change the face of international relations. However, it is required that parochial identities don't hamper rational interests in the process.

NHRC was set up in India as a statutory body under Protection of Human Rights Act, 1992.

Objectives of NHRC

- ① To uphold human rights, because they are the basic requirements for development of a human being.
- ② Uphold Art 21 and ensure people become agents in development process
- ③ To check against the arbitrary action of organs of government.
- ④ To uphold India's allegiance to Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 1948 under UN.

(250 words) 15
Self Help Groups (SHGs) refers to the informal groups of 8-10 women usually who work together and produce things or lend money to the members.

Features of SHG

- ① Consists of rural BPL women.
- ② Present in 2-3 geo contiguous districts.
- ③ Above poverty line women can enter but can't take managerial positions.
- ④ works for emancipation of rural poverty.

Significance of SHGs

- ① Provides financial incentives to women in rural areas.
- ② Integrates women into the economic arena of the country.
- ③ Supplements rural incomes and provides funds for distress needs.
- ④ Help break the gender stereotypes in the country side.

- ⑤ Acts as agent of social change in social ^{rural} area. Ex Kudumbashree in Kerala, SEWA in Gujarat.
- ⑥ Provides financial and social empowerment to women.
- ⑦ Some SHGs act as active participants in Civil Society movements.
Ex Mother Committees in social audit in North Indian schools.
- ⑧ Many Gulf and African countries are following the Kerala 'Kudumbashree model' to bring women empowerment.

Challenges faced by SHGs

- ① Poor skills, not in tune with contemporary requirements
- ② Lack of sufficient funds for working.
- ③ Skewed distribution of SHGs in Western and Southern India. Less in Northwestern and Eastern India.
- ④ Used as vote banks by politicians.

① Gender based stereotypes oppose their functioning.

Government initiatives

① NGOs to train members of SHGs to impart skills.

② Nabard - SHG bank linkage program to provide funds.

③ Promotion of SHGs in other parts of country

Way forward - to turn SHGs into panacea

① Gender based stereotypes to be challenged to ensure efficiency via awareness drive.

② More promotion of SHGs in less favourable parts of India.

③ Education be spread by SHGs with help of State and NGOs.

SHGs are not "THE" solution for socio-economic development but surely is "a" possible solution. Therefore, they need to be strengthened and integrated into Indian Society.

Assess the strategic significance of Taiwan for the world, and how its position as a major economic power and a potential flashpoint in the Asia-Pacific region affects the geopolitical balance of power in the 21st century. (250 words) 15

Taiwan is a small island located in the South China Sea. It is also called as 'Chinese Taipei'.

Significance of Taiwan

- ① Taiwan stands in opposition to China's Communism ideology.
- ② It is the global semiconductor manufacturing hub with >90% of semiconductor chips production.
- ③ Although not recognized as a country by UN it is an observer member.
- ④ It contributes to global supply chain of electrical and electronics items.

Taiwan: potential flashpoint in geopolitics

- ① Due to >90% fabrication of chips, it is single power area for devices.

- ② Any disruption or attack on Taiwan would lead to supply demand gap and wireand prices worldwide.
- ③ All critical systems today are tech band, which require semiconductor chips. This could endanger security (messy) of world.
- ④ Any defence activity of aggression over Taiwan would lead to potential war with USA.
- ⑤ Taiwan is major ally of USA.

Taiwan guides the balance of power both in the real and virtual world we live in. Therefore it is necessary to safeguard it and also diversify its production to make world more resilient to any supply shocks.
