Why in News

India has decided to send a contingent of 75 personnel from its three armed forces to participate in Russia's 75th World War II Victory Day Parade on 24 June, 2020.

Key Points

- The Russian parade is held every year on Victory Day (May 9), which marks the surrender of Nazi Germany in 1945.
This year it was delayed because of the Covid-19.
- The victory day parade honours the heroism and sacrifices made by the Russian and other friendly people.
- India's participation in the parade will be a mark of tribute and solidarity with the people of Russia.
- Earlier in January 2020, Russia had invited India to take part in the victory day parade.

India-Russia Defence Cooperation

- Defence remains the most significant aspect of India's relations with Russia with both sides looking to encourage joint manufacturing of equipment under India's Make-in-India programme and through transfer of technology.
- After the Vladivostok summit in 2019, both the countries had recognized the requirement of an institutional arrangement for reciprocal provision of logistic support and services for the armed forces.
They had also agreed to prepare a framework for cooperation on it.
- During the 5th India Russia military industry conference held during the Defexpo 2020 in Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh), companies from both the countries signed various Memorandum of Understanding( MoUs) to develop a range of defence equipment.

- In 2019, despite the threat of U.S. sanctions, India went ahead with the decision to purchase the S-400 missile defence system, worth over $5 billion.
- Both the countries continue to encourage military to military cooperation through military political dialogue and joint military exercises.
  - In 2019, India and Russia carried out a second joint tri-service exercise INDRA.
  - In 2019, India also took part in Exercise TSENTR 2019 of the Russian Armed Force.
- Despite Russia's deep military and political ties with China, and its own relations with the U.S., India continues to look at Russia as a key partner.
