Why in News

India and 50 African countries adopted the ‘Lucknow Declaration’ at first India – Africa Defence Minister’s Conclave.

The Conclave was held on the sidelines of the ongoing DefExpo 2020 (5th to 9th February, 2020) in Lucknow (Uttar Pradesh).

Highlights of the Declaration

- Peace and Security
 - All the signatories committed to continue their collaboration in the fields of peace and security including conflict prevention, resolution, management and peacebuilding.
 - It also aims to enhance the role of women in peacekeeping.
- Maritime Security

To exchange expertise and trainers, strengthening regional and continental early warning capacities and mechanisms.
- Terrorism
 - Terrorism is a major threat in the region and thus aims to take resolute action in rooting out terrorism in all its forms and manifestations, eliminating financing channels and halting cross-border movement of terrorists.
 - It also urges the international community to envisage the adoption of the Comprehensive Convention on International Terrorism in the United Nations General Assembly (UNGA).
- Importance of Indo-Pacific:

To encourage enhanced cooperation between India and Africa on the evolving concept of Indo-Pacific.

- India's SAGAR:

It also welcomes the African Unions' vision for peace and security in Africa that coincides with India's vision of SAGAR (Security and Growth for all in the Region).

- SAGAR is an articulation of India's vision for the Indian Ocean.
- SAGAR has elements such as enhancement of capacities to safeguard land and maritime territories & interests; deepening economic and security cooperation in the littoral; action to deal with natural disasters and maritime threats like piracy, terrorism.

- Compliance at UNSC:

To strengthen the UN Counter-Terrorism mechanisms and to ensure strict compliance with the the UN Security Council sanctions regime on terrorism.

Origin and Status of Comprehensive Convention on International Terrorism (CCIT)

- India has pushed for an intergovernmental convention to enhance prosecution and extradition of terrorists since 1996.
- Although consensus eludes towards the adoption of the terrorism convention, discussions have yielded three separate protocols that aim to tackle terrorism:
 - International Convention for the Suppression of Terrorist Bombings, adopted on 15 December 1997;
 - International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism, adopted on 9 December 1999;
 - International Convention for the Suppression of Acts of Nuclear Terrorism, adopted on 13 April 2005.
