

National Bravery Awards For Children

Why in News

- On February 24, 2022, the Child Welfare Council of India, New Delhi selected Aman Jyoti Zaire, a resident of Korba district of Chhattisgarh, for the National Child Bravery Award 2021.

Key Points

- This award is given every year by the Indian Council of Child Welfare along with a certificate and a cash amount to the children for their courageous deeds and bravery.
- Keeping in view the COVID circumstances, the date for conferring this National Award will be announced later.
- Aman Jyoti was recently awarded the State Bravery Award by the Chhattisgarh State Child Welfare Council for the courageous work done by him.
- 15 years old Aman Jyoti, a resident of Korba, saved the life of a student who was older than him on Friendship Day on August 1, 2021.

PDF Refernece URL: <https://www.drishtias.com/printpdf/national-bravery-awards-for-children>