

2nd RoundTable in the context of global city project | Haryana | 13 May 2022

Why In News

- On May 11, 2022, the second Round Table Conference was held in Mumbai under the chairmanship of Chief Minister Manohar Lal Khattar in the context of seeking major real estate developers and real estate focused funds for the Global City Project to be set up in Gurugram, Haryana.

Key Point

- The Global City Project will be developed under the aegis of Haryana State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation, which is a nodal agency of the Government.
- The Chief Minister said that through this project, Gurugram will be developed as a central business district. It focuses on modern technology sectors and future oriented industries, low carbon green infrastructure, easy living, skill development of people and creating jobs.
- Speaking on the occasion, Vikas Gupta, Managing Director, Haryana State Industrial and Infrastructure Development Corporation, said that it is a mixed land use project, which is being developed in Sectors 36B, 37A and 37B in Gurugram with the under-construction 8-lane Dwarka Expressway on an area of about 1003 acres on an area of about 1003 acres in the residential and commercial hub being developed in Sectors 36B, 37A and 37B in Gurugram along the under-construction 8-lane Dwarka Expressway on an area of about 1003 acres of 'city within a city' Imagine developing as.