

NCC Cadet Honored in Republic Day Parade | Uttar Pradesh | 09 Feb 2023

Why In News?

On February 8, 2023, NCC cadets participating in the Republic Day Parade were felicitated by the NCC Group Headquarters at Raj Bhavan Lucknow, Uttar Pradesh. A total of 52 girls cadets participated in this parade. Who got first place in the drill competition.

Key points

- The parade contingent included 9 cadets from 20 UP Girls Battalion, 16 cadets from 19 Battalion, 4 cadets from 63 Battalion, 5 cadets from 64 Battalion, 21 cadets from 67 Battalion, 8 cadets from 39 and 9 cadets from 5 Air Squadron NCC.
- Also, NCC boys of senior division have secured first place in the drill competition.
- Two girl's cadets from Lucknow NCC Group Headquarters were initiative, awarded a Certificate of Appreciation from Director General NCC Delhi and a cash prize of Rs 3000 for their leadership, dedication and outstanding performance in various camps.
- Senior under-officer Kirti Rai and senior under-officer Vaibhavi Bhate received the certificate of appreciation from the Director General NCC.
- It is known that cultural programs were organized in honor of the cadets from 75 districts at Raj Bhavan. The highest performers were awarded medals and certificates in the 20Th Uttar Pradesh Girls Battalion.