

First National Party from North-East

The National People's Party (NPP) has been recognised as the eighth national party by the Election Commission of India, making it the first regional party of the north-east to be accorded the status.

- NPP was given the national party status for fulfilling the following conditions:
  - In the general election to the Legislative Assembly of Arunachal, the party polled 14.55% (Polling more than 6% of the total valid votes in the last general election) of the valid votes.
  - The NPP, in addition, won five out of the sixty seats in the Legislative Assembly of Arunachal Pradesh.
  - Based on above mentioned two criteria, the party fulfilled the requirements for recognition as State Party in the State of Arunachal Pradesh.
  - Thereby, after its recognition as State party in Arunachal Pradesh, it has become a recognized State party in four States i.e. Manipur, Meghalaya, Nagaland and Arunachal Pradesh.
  - Thus the Party fulfilled the eligibility condition for being recognized as National Party.
  - Further, as per the request of the Party, the symbol "Book" has been allotted as the reserved symbol for the 'National People's Party'.
- Before NPP's elevation, India had seven national parties.
  - Trinamool Congress, led by West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee, became the seventh in September 2016.
- The National People's Party (NPP) was formed in 2013 by the current Meghalaya Chief Minister Conrad K Sangma's father and former Lok Sabha Speaker, late Purno Agitok Sangma.

Recognition of National and State Parties

- The Election Commission registers political parties for the purpose of elections and grants them recognition as national or state parties on the basis of their poll performance.
- The other parties are simply declared as registered unrecognised parties.
- The recognition granted by the Commission to the parties determines their right to certain privileges like allocation of the party symbols, provision of time for political broadcasts on the state-owned television and radio stations and access to electoral rolls.

- Further, the recognized parties need only one proposer for filing the nomination. Also, these parties are allowed to have forty “star campaigners” during the time of elections and the registered-unrecognized parties are allowed to have twenty “star campaigners”.
  - The travel expenses of these star campaigners are not included in the election expenditure of the candidates of their parties.
- Every national party is allotted a symbol exclusively reserved for its use throughout the country.
- Similarly, every state party is allotted a symbol exclusively reserved for its use in the state or states in which it is so recognised. A registered-unrecognised party, on the other hand, can select a symbol from a list of free symbols.
- The national parties and state parties are also known as all-India parties and regional parties respectively.

Conditions for Recognition as a National Party

- A party is recognised as a national party if any of the following conditions is fulfilled:
  - If it secures six per cent of valid votes polled in any four or more states at a general election to the Lok Sabha or to the legislative assembly; and, in addition, it wins four seats in the Lok Sabha from any state or states; or
  - If it wins two per cent of seats in the Lok Sabha at a general election; and these candidates are elected from three states; or
  - If it is recognised as a state party in four states.

Conditions for Recognition as a State Party

- A party is recognised as a state party in a state if any of the following conditions is fulfilled:
  - If it secures 6% of the valid votes polled in the state at a general election to the legislative assembly of the state concerned; and, in addition, it wins 2 seats in the assembly of the state concerned; or
  - If it secures 6% of the valid votes polled in the state at a general election to the Lok Sabha from the state concerned; and, in addition, it wins 1 seat in the Lok Sabha from the state concerned; or
  - If it wins 3% of seats in the legislative assembly at a general election to the legislative assembly of the state concerned or 3 seats in the assembly, whichever is more; or
  - If it wins 1 seat in the Lok Sabha for every 25 seats or any fraction thereof allotted to the state at a general election to the Lok Sabha from the state concerned; or
  - If it secures 8% of the total valid votes polled in the state at a General Election to the Lok Sabha from the state or to the legislative assembly of the state. This condition was added in 2011.
