

Hurdles for F-1 and M-1 Visa Holders in USA

Why in News

Recently, the USA has announced that F-1 and M-1 visa holders who are planning to take online only models will not be allowed to stay in the USA.

- Many universities in the USA are planning to shift all their classes online for the fall semester due to Covid-19 pandemic.
  - Fall semester starts in late August and ends in late December or early January whereas the Spring semester begins in January and ends in early May.
- F-1 visas are issued to study in the USA for full-time students whereas M-1 visas are issued to students engaging in vocational or non-academic studies.
- The announcement comes weeks after the USA President suspended H1-B highly skilled worker visas through the end of the year. Most of these visas go to Indian citizens each year.

Key Points

Announcements Made:

- The students outside the USA planning to take all courses online in the fall semester would not be permitted entry into the country.
  - The USA would not issue visas to students who are going to take all their classes online due to the pandemic.
- It also stated that the active students under F-1 and M-1 visas in such programs must depart the country or take other measures, such as transferring to a school with in-person instruction to remain in lawful status.
  - The USA regulations do not allow students in F-1 status to be in online classes but normally F-1 students are allowed to take one class or three credit hours online.

• Affected Population:

- There were more than one million international students in the United States for the 2018-19 academic year. That accounted for 5.5% of the total USA's higher education population.
  - Also, international students contributed $44.7 billion to the USA's economy in 2018
- India is the second largest source of the foreign students in the USA after China.
  - The largest number of international students come from China, followed by India, South Korea, Saudi Arabia and Canada.

Consequences:

• If alternative measures are not opted then these students may face immigration

- consequences including, but not limited to, the initiation of removal proceedings.
- It is a difficult situation for students as international travel already faces disruption due to Covid-19.

Available Alternatives :

• Affected students may switch to visitor status but it is not a long term solution as visitor status is short term and there is no guarantee that it will be approved.

Way Forward

- Considering the unprecedented pandemic scenario, the USA can amend the regulation for F-1 and M-1 students.
- The one-size-fits-all approach will create more havoc and complexities not only in USA administration but also in diplomatic relations with countries like India and China.
