

Chief Minister inaugurated Gahoi Bhawan in Raipur

Why In News?

- On March 5, 2023, Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel inaugurated the newly constructed building built by Shri Gahoi Vaishya Samaj of Raipur at Tatibandh near AIIMS in the state capital Raipur.

Key points

- On this occasion, Chief Minister Mr. Bhupesh Baghel said that this building has been constructed by Shri Ghai Vaishya Samaj to plan for the stay of patients and their families during the treatment of patients in AIIMS.
- He said that with the construction of the newly constructed building, people of other societies will also get its benefit. This building will be very useful for patients coming from Chhattisgarh and other states outside Chhattisgarh. Many times, the treatment must be stopped for a long time, in such a situation, through this building, the problem of stay of patients and their families will be solved and will provide them a lot of relief.
- The Chief Minister said that this work of the society is a high-quality human service. Any society which does not own land is being given land for giving a fixed amount for social work. Collector guidelines have also been reduced by 30 percent.

