

Special Protection Group (Amendment) Bill, 2019

Why in News

Recently, the Parliament has passed the Special Protection Group (Amendment) Bill, 2019. The SPG Bill will amend the SPG Act of 1988.

- The proposed amendments in the Special Protection Group (SPG) Bill aims to reduce the financial burden of VIP security on the state exchequer.
- The reduction of SPG coverage will also help to eliminate the notion of a status symbol attached to it.

Special Protection Group

- The SPG was raised in 1985 to provide security cover to the Prime Minister, former Prime Ministers and their immediate family members.
- The SPG comprises of the personnel from the CRPF, Border Security Force and other Central and State forces.

Amendments

Reduced SPG Coverage:

- The protection to be offered only to the Prime Minister, former Prime Ministers and their immediate family members that will reside with him at his official residence.
- Currently, the security cover is provided to the Prime Minister, former Prime Ministers and their immediate family members.
- Time period:
 - The security will be provided only for a period of five years to the former Prime Ministers and their immediate family after they leave the office.
 - However, the immediate family members need to be residing with the former Prime Minister at the allotted residence.
- Withdrawal:
 - When the proximate security is withdrawn from a former Prime Minister such proximate security will also stand withdrawn from members of his immediate family.
