What is the Significance of Kozhikode and Gwalior?

▪ Kozhikode as City of Literature:

- Kozhikode is the first city in India to receive the prestigious title of 'City of Literature' by UNESCO.
- The city has a long history of hosting various literary events, such as the Kerala Literature Festival, which is one of the largest literary gatherings in Asia.
 - This acknowledgement reinforces the city's role as a hub for intellectual exchange and literary discussions.
 - Kozhikode carried the distinction of being home to over 500 libraries.
- The city is also home to many renowned writers, including S. K. Pottekkatt (the most celebrated writer of the city), Thikkodiyar and P. Valsala Sanjayan, along with poets, scholars, and publishers who have contributed to the diversity and vibrancy of Malayalam literature and culture.

▪ Gwalior as the City of Music:

- Gwalior is the second city in India to be designated as the 'City of Music' by UNESCO, after Varanasi in 2015.
- The city is widely regarded as the birthplace of Tansen, one of the greatest musicians and composers in Indian history, who was also one of the 'Navratnas' (nine jewels) in the court of Emperor Akbar.
- The city is also the origin of the Gwalior Gharana, the oldest and most influential school of Hindustani classical music.
- The city hosts one of the biggest annual music festivals in India, the Tansen Sangeet Samaroh, which attracts thousands of music lovers and artists from across the country and abroad.

UNESCO Creative Cities Network (UCCN)

- It was created in 2004.
- It aims to "promote cooperation among cities which recognize creativity as a strategic factor in their urban development".
 - Sustainable Development Goal 11 aims for Sustainable Cities and Communities.
- The network covers seven creative fields: crafts and folk arts, media arts, film, design, gastronomy, literature and music.
