20 Oct, 2022 GS Paper 4 Theoretical Questions

Approach

- Discuss briefly the western ideas.
- Discuss at least two Indian Saints who propagated modern ideas without compromising on Indian Ethos.
- Conclude suitably.

Introduction

 Western idea, sometimes equated with Western civilization, is a term used very broadly to refer to a heritage of social norms, ethical values, traditional customs, belief systems, political systems, and specific artifacts and technologies that have some origin or association with Europe.

Body

- Indian Saints who showed modern outlook:
 - Swami Vivekanand:
 - He introduced Indian philosophies of Vedanta and Yoga to the Western world and is credited with raising interfaith awareness, bringing Hinduism to the world stage during the late 19th century.
 - He established Ramakrishna Mission in 1987, named after his Guru Swami Ramakrishna Paramhansa. The institution did extensive educational and philanthropic work in India.
 - Core values of Swami Vivekanand's Philosophy:
 - Ethics
 - Morality in both individual life and social life is mostly based on fear of societal censure.
 - But Vivekananda gave a new theory of ethics and new principle of morality based on the intrinsic purity and oneness of the Atman.
 - Ethics according to Vivekananda was nothing but a code of conduct that helps a man to be a good citizen.
 - We should be pure because purity is our real nature, our true divine Self or Atman.
 - Similarly, we should love and serve our neighbours because we are all one in the Supreme Spirit known as Paramatma or Brahman.
 - Rationality:
 - He did not discard reason in favor of faith.
 - He recognized intuition or inspiration as a higher faculty than reason. But the truth derived from intuition had to be explained and systematized by reason.
 - Buddha:

- Core values of Buddha's Philosophy:
 - To avoid the two extremes of indulgence in worldly pleasure and the practice of strict abstinence and asceticism.
 - He ascribed instead the 'Madhyam Marg' or the middle path which was to be followed.
 - According to him everyone was responsible for their own happiness in life, stressing upon the individualistic component of Buddhism.
- Main teachings:
- To encapsulating in the basic concept of four noble truths or ariya-sachchani and eightfold path or astangika marg.
- Four noble truths:
 - Suffering (dukkha) is the essence of the world.
 - Every suffering has a cause Samudya.
 - Suffering could be extinguished Nirodha.
 - It can be achieved by following the Atthanga Magga (Eight-Fold Path).
- Eight-Fold Paths: It consists of various interconnected activities related to knowledge, conduct, and meditative practices.
 - Right view
 - Right intention
 - Right speech
 - Right action
 - Right livelihood
 - Right mindfulness
 - Right effort
 - Right concentration

Conclusion

- Swami Vivekananda belonged to the 19th century, yet his message and his life are more relevant today than in the past and perhaps, will be more relevant in future.
- The Buddhist teachings inculcate compassion, calmness & composure, joy among humans and they can help maintain a sustainable balance between man and nature.
 - The ultimate goal of Buddha's teaching was the attainment of nibbana which was not a place but an experience, and could be attained in this life.
