

Wildlife Conservation in India

Why in News

According to the recent data by the Wildlife Crime Control Bureau (WCCB) and State Forest and Police Authorities, in the past three years (2018-2020), about 2054 cases were registered for killing or illegal trafficking of wild animals in India.

- In order to control this, the WCCB has conducted a number of species-specific enforcement operations with coordination of State Enforcement Agencies.
- WCCB is a statutory multi-disciplinary body established by the Government of India under the Ministry of Environment and Forests, to combat organized wildlife crime in the country. It has its headquarter in New Delhi.

Key Points

- Impact of Illegal Wildlife Trade:
 - Species face extinction because of demands arising out of illegal wildlife trade.
 - Overexploitation of the wildlife resources due to its illegal trade creates imbalances in the ecosystem.

Vision

- Illegal wildlife trade as part of the illegal trade syndicates undermines the economy of the country and thereby creates social insecurity.
- Wild plants that provide genetic variation for crops (natural source for many medicines) are threatened by the illegal trade.
- Various Species-Specific Enforcement Operations:
 - Operation Save Kurma: To focus on the poaching, transportation and illegal trade of live turtles and tortoises.
 - Operation Turtshield: It was taken up to tackle the illegal trade of live turtles.
 - Operation Lesknow: To gain attention of enforcement agencies towards the illegal wildlife trade in lesser-known species of wildlife.
 - Operation Clean Art: To drag attention of enforcement agencies towards illegal wildlife trade in Mongoose hair brushes.
 - Operation Softgold: To tackle Shahtoosh Shawl (made from Chiru wool) illegal trade and to spread awareness among the weavers and traders engaged in this trade.
 - Operation Birbil: To curb illegal trade in wild cat and wild bird species.
 - Operation Wildnet: It was aimed to draw the attention of the enforcement agencies within the country to focus their attention on the ever increasing illegal wildlife trade over the internet using social media platforms.
 - Operation Freefly: To check illegal trade of live birds.
 - Operation Wetmark: To ensure prohibition of sale of meat of wild animals in wet markets across the country.
- India's Domestic Legal Framework for Wildlife Conservation:
 - Constitutional Provisions for Wildlife:
 - The 42nd Amendment Act, 1976, Forests and Protection of Wild Animals and Birds

- was transferred from State to Concurrent List.
- Article 51 A (g) of the Constitution states that it shall be the fundamental duty of every citizen to protect and improve the natural environment including forests and Wildlife.
- Article 48 A in the Directive Principles of State policy, mandates that the State shall endeavor to protect and improve the environment and to safeguard the forests and wildlife of the country.

The Vision

- Legal Framework:
 - Wildlife (Protection) Act, 1972
 - Environment Protection Act, 1986
 - The Biological Diversity Act, 2002
