Why in News?

Recently, the Madras High Court ruled that the rule of reservation need not be followed in the appointment of law officers.

- The court held that merit must be the sole criterion for such appointments as the government is duty-bound to engage only the most proficient, competent and capable lawyers to represent it before the courts of law.

What are the Key Points of the Verdict?

- The verdict was delivered while dismissing a public interest litigation petition filed in 2017 insisting upon transparency and adequate representation for women, the Scheduled Caste, the Scheduled Tribe and the minorities in the appointment of law officers.
 - The petitioner highlighted that the Appointment of Law Officers of the High Court of Madras had failed to provide vertical as well as horizontal reservation.
- The Division Bench has stated that the relationship between an advocate and their client is one of active confidence and trust and is governed by the doctrine of uberrima fides.
 - The relationship between the government and the law officer is purely professional and not that of a master and a servant.
- The law officers are not appointed to a civil post nor are they employees of the government. Therefore, it cannot be held that reservation needs to be provided while appointing law officers by the government.
- The court suggested that the invitation for applications should be inclusive, allowing the government to select highly competent and meritorious lawyers as law officers.

Doctrine of Uberrima Fides:

- The doctrine of Uberrima Fides is a Latin phrase that translates to “utmost good faith”. It requires the advocate to act in the best interests of the client.

What are the Rules/Judgements Related to Reservation in Public Employment?

- According to Office Memorandum issued by the Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) in 2021 the rule of reservation must be applied even to contractual as well as temporary appointments barring those that were to last for less than 45 days.
- The Supreme Court in Indra Sawhney's case, 1992 ruled that providing reservations for certain services and positions might not be advisable for the performance of duties.
 - The post of a law officer was one such position that must be exempt from the rule of reservation.
- In 2022, Justices Nageswara Rao, Sanjiv Khanna, and B.R. Gavai issued a ruling emphasizing that state governments must provide measurable data to justify reservation policies for the promotion of candidates belonging to SC and STs.
 - The court upheld the requirement for state authorities to support their decisions on promoting SC/ST candidates with concrete and measurable evidence.
- Constitutional Provisions Governing Reservation in India:
 - Articles 15(4) and 16(4) of the Constitution enabled the State and Central Governments to reserve seats in government services for the members of the SC and ST.
 - Constitutional 81st Amendment Act, 2000 inserted Article 16 (4B) which enables the state to fill the unfilled vacancies of a year which are reserved for SCs/STs in the succeeding year, thereby nullifying the ceiling of 50% reservation on the total number of vacancies of that year.
 - Article 335 of the constitution says that the claims of STs and STs shall be taken into consideration consistently with the maintenance of efficacy of the administration.
- Advocate General
 - Under Article 165 of the Constitution of India the Governor of each State shall appoint a person who is qualified to be appointed as a Judge of a High Court to be Advocate General for the State.
 - The Advocate General is the Highest legal officer in the state in India.
 - He possesses the complete authority to present himself in any court within the state.
 - He lacks voting privileges in the proceedings of the state legislature or any committees initiated by the state legislature. However, he does retain the right to speak and participate in these proceedings.
