

Critical and Emerging Technologies Dialogue

Why in News?

India's National Security Advisor hold talks with the US counterpart on the first dialogue on Initiative for Critical and Emerging Technologies (iCET) in the US.

 Completing the work on the long-awaited NASA-ISRO Synthetic Aperture Radar (NISAR) earth observation satellite is an excellent example of how the US-India partnership in space can benefit the world.

What is the iCET Initiative?

- About:
 - The iCET initiative was launched by India and the US in May 2022, and is being run by the National Security Councils of both countries.
 - Under iCET, the both countries have identified six areas of cooperation which would include co-development and co-production, that would gradually be expanded to OUAD, then to NATO, followed by Europe and the rest of the world.
 - Under iCET, India is ready to share its core technologies with the US and expects Washington to do the same.
- Six Areas of Cooperation:
 - The six areas for cooperation are scientific research and development; quantum and artificial intelligence, defense innovation, space, advanced telecom which would include things like 6G and semiconductors.
- Significance:
 - iCET would forge closer linkages between government, academia and industry of the two countries.
 - The objective is to provide cutting edge technologies to the rest of the world which are affordable.
 - The launch of the ambitious iCET dialogue is seen as "an alignment of strategic, commercial and scientific approaches" in the field of technology.
 - This is eventually likely to be mirrored in the progress made in Quad the informal grouping of four countries, Australia, Japan, India and the United States.

Who is a National Security Advisor (NSA) in India?

- The NSA is the primary advisor to the Prime Minister of India. He also presides over the National Security Council (NSC).
 - The current NSA is Ajit Doval.
- The NSC of India is a three-tiered organisation that oversees political, economic, energy and security issues of strategic concern.
 - It was formed in 1998, where all aspects of national security are deliberated upon.
 - NSC operates within the executive office of the PM, liaising between the government's executive branch and the intelligence services.
