• A two-day programme was recently held in Mayavati to commemorate the milestone.

Key Points

- The ashram was founded by Swami Vivekananda in 1899.
- The objective of the Ashrama is to study, practice and preach the Advaita philosophy free from ritualistic settings, and also to train others in spreading it.
 - The Ashrama in a short time became a centre point for the best minds of the East and the West. It helped spread the core Advaita doctrine.
- Advaita Ashrama in Kolkata was established 21 years after Mayavati Ashram to meet the growing demand for its publications and journal Prabuddha Bharata.
- Advaita Vedanta is the core of Hindu Dharma, teaching the oneness of existence and solidarity of the human race.
 - For the past 125 years, Advaita Ashrama has been disseminating principles of Advaita ideology through literature published from its Kolkata branch.

Advaita Vedanta

- It articulates a philosophical position of radical nondualism, a revisionary worldview which it derives from the ancient Upanishadic texts.
- According to Advaita Vedantins, the Upanishads reveal a fundamental principle of nonduality termed 'brahman', which is the reality of all things.
- Advaitins understand brahman as transcending individuality and empirical plurality. They seek to establish that the essential core of one's self (atman) is brahman.
- The fundamental thrust of Advaita Vedanta is that the atman is pure non-intentional consciousness.
 - It is one without a second, nondual, infinite existence, and numerically identical with brahman.
