<h2 style="text-align: justify;">Key Facts About Article 370</h2>
<ul style="list-style-type: square;">
    <li style="text-align: justify;">Article 370 of the Indian Constitution granted special status to Jammu and Kashmir.</li>
    <li style="text-align: justify;">It was drafted by N Gopalaswami Ayyangar, a member of the Constituent Assembly of India and was added as a 'temporary provision' in 1949.</li>
    <li style="text-align: justify;">This article allowed Jammu and Kashmir to have its constitution, flag, and autonomy over most matters except defence, foreign affairs, and communications.</li>
    <li style="text-align: justify;">The provision was based on the terms of the Instrument of Accession, which was signed by the ruler of Jammu and Kashmir, Hari Singh, in 1947 following an invasion by Pakistan.</li>
</ul>
<h2>Repeal of Article 370 by Government</h2>
<ul style="list-style-type: square;">
    <li style="text-align: justify;">Presidential Order: In the 2019 Presidential orders, Parliament brought a provision giving new meaning to &ldquo;constituent assembly of Jammu and Kashmir&rdquo;, to mean &ldquo;Legislative Assembly of Jammu and Kashmir&rdquo;;</li>
```

and then assumed the powers of the Legislative Assembly through the President's rule to revoke Article 370.

<ul style="list-style-type: circle;">

<li style="text-align: justify;">Concurrent resolutions by both houses of Parliament revoked the remaining provisions of Article 370 and replaced them with new ones.</li>
