

Bihar Man Files FIR Against Political Leader

Why in News?

A Bihar resident has filed a case against a political party leader, accusing him of causing financial loss.

Key Points

- The complainant, reportedly a milk vendor, approached the local court, alleging that a political rally led by a political leader disrupted his business operations.
- The complainant, however, has asserted his right to seek compensation for the inconvenience caused by the rally.
  - The incident underscores the growing trend of citizens seeking legal redress for grievances stemming from political events, reflecting a larger debate on balancing political expression with public convenience.
- A resident of Sonupur village is seeking the trial of the political leader under various sections of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023, including Section 152, which deals with sedition.
  - Section 152 of the BNS criminalises any act of exciting secession, armed rebellion, and subversive activities.
  - It also criminalises acts encouraging feelings of separatism or endangering the sovereignty, unity, and integrity of India.

BHARATIYA NYAYA SANHITA (BNS), 2023

BNS 2023 replaced Indian Penal Code 1860, incorporating 358 sections (511 in IPC), maintaining most of the IPC provisions, introducing new offences, eliminating court- struck-down offences, and enhancing penalties for various offences.

New Offences

- Promise to Marry: Criminalising "deceitful" promises to marry
- Mob Lynching: Codify offences linked to mob lynching and hate-crime murders
- Ordinary criminal law now covers Organized Crime and Terrorism, including a broader scope for terror financing in BNS compared to UAPA
- Attempt to Suicide: Criminalises attempts to commit suicide with intent to compel or restrain any public servant from discharging official duty
- Community Service: Added as possible form of punishment

Deletions

- Unnatural Sexual Offences: Section 377 of the IPC, which criminalised homosexuality among other "unnatural" sexual activities repealed completely
- Adultery: Offence of adultery omitted in consonance of apex court judgement
- Thugs: Section 310 of IPC fully omitted
- Gender Neutrality: Some laws dealing with children modified to bring gender neutrality

Other Modifications

- Fake News: Criminalisation of publishing false and misleading information
- Sedition: Introduced under a new name 'deshdroh' with wider definition
- Mandatory Minimum Sentence: In several provisions, mandatory minimum sentences prescribed which may limit scope for judicial discretion
- Damage to Public Property: Carry a graded fine (i.e. fine corresponding to the amount of damage caused)
- Death by Negligence: Elevates punishment for causing death by negligence from two to five years (for doctors - 2 yrs imprisonment)

Key Issues

- Criminal Responsibility Age Discrepancy: Criminal responsibility starts at seven, extendable to 12 based on maturity, potentially conflicting with global recommendations
- Inconsistencies in Child Offense Definitions: It sets child age below 18, but age criteria for offenses like rape differ, causing inconsistency
- Retention of IPC Provisions on Rape and Sexual Harassment: Maintains IPC provisions on rape and sexual harassment, omitting Justice Verma Committee's 2013 suggestions for gender-neutral rape and recognizing marital rape as an offense.
