

Caste Atrocity Complaint in UP

Why in News?

Recently, the National Commission for Scheduled Castes (NCSC) has acknowledged an atrocity complaint filed against a member of Uttar Pradesh's Transgender Welfare Board.

• The movement for horizontal reservation for transgender individuals in government jobs and education is gaining momentum in northern India, inspired by activists in southern States.

Key Points

- Horizontal and Vertical Reservations:
 - Vertical Reservations create a separate quota category under which all transgender individuals qualify, regardless of their socio-economic background.
 - Horizontal Reservations allocate a percentage of seats for transgender individuals within each socio-economic category, addressing the layered discrimination faced by marginalized caste trans people.
 - Trans activists nationwide advocate for horizontal reservations, highlighting vertical quotas' failure to address caste-based discrimination within the transgender community.
- NCSC Action on Complaint:
 - NCSC issued notices to the Saharanpur district administration and police, based on a complaint by a Dalit trans woman activist.
 - She alleged that a member of Uttar Pradesh's Transgender Welfare Board, harassed activists supporting horizontal reservations.
 - She submitted a recording where the member allegedly used casteist and transphobic slurs, including deliberate misgendering.
 - The member denied the allegations, claiming the voice in the recording was not hers and questioning the legality of recording calls.
 - She accused the complainant of misusing constitutional provisions and plans to file complaints with the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) and NCSC.
- Debate on Reservation Policy:
 - The 2014 Supreme Court judgment directed reservations for transgender individuals as "Socially and educationally backward classes (SEBC)," sparking differing interpretations.
 - In Madhya Pradesh, transgender individuals were added to the State OBC list in April 2023.
 - High Courts, including Karnataka, Madras, and Calcutta, have ruled in favor of horizontal reservations.
- Diverging Opinions on Reservation:
 - One perspective supports vertical reservations, asserting that discrimination against transgender individuals stems from gender, not caste.
 - It challenges the idea that transgender individuals retain their caste identity after transitioning, referencing the 2014 Supreme Court judgment.
 - The opposing view critiques this interpretation as overlooking the caste diversity within the transgender community, emphasizing that horizontal reservations address the layered discrimination faced by marginalized caste transgender individuals.

Broader Implications:

- The Supreme Court refused to clarify the ambiguity in the 2014 judgment in March 2023.
- The debate underscores the need for nuanced policies to ensure equitable representation for transgender individuals across socio-economic categories.
