Recently, the Ministry of Defence launched Eklavya, an online learning platform for the Indian Army.

- Aim: To improve the professional education and training of Indian Army officers under the Decade of Transformation (2023-2032) initiative and the 2024 theme, Year of Technology Absorption.
- Developed By: Bhaskaracharya National Institute of Space Applications and Geoinformatics (BISAG-N), Gandhinagar.
- Content: A total of 96 courses by 17 Category 'A' Training Establishments of the Indian Army have been hosted on the platform.
- Three Categories of Courses:
  - Pre-course Preparatory Capsules: Shift basic offline physical courses to the online courses.
  - Appointment/Assignment Related Courses: Like information warfare, defence land management, financial planning, discipline and vigilance works etc.
  - Professional Development Suite: Courses on Strategy, Operational Art, Leadership, Organisational Behaviour, Emerging Technology etc.
- Centralised Knowledge Hub: Eklavya features a searchable "Knowledge Highway" where journals, research papers, articles, and more are accessible under one platform.

The screenshot shows the Eklavya platform interface. The header includes the Indian Army logo and the text "Welcome to Eklavya The Indian Army Portal for Online Learning". Below the header, there are three main sections: "Participating Instts" on the left, "Courses Currently Open for Registration" in the center, and "KNOWLEDGE HIGHWAY" on the right. The "Participating Instts" section lists various training establishments. The "Courses Currently Open for Registration" section is divided into three categories: "Pre-Course Capsules", "Appts-Related Courses", and "Misc Courses of Interest". The "KNOWLEDGE HIGHWAY" section features a search bar and a grid of buttons for different topics like "International Relations", "China", "Autonomous Wpns", "Research Papers", etc. A quote by Swami Vivekananda is displayed in the center: "ALL THAT I HAVE TO LEARN IS WITHIN ME." The footer contains copyright information and a visitor count.
