

Udhampur Railway Station Renamed After Martyr Captain Tushar Mahajan | Jammu & Kashmir | 22 Aug 2025

Why in News?

In a heartwarming tribute to Captain Tushar Mahajan, the Udhampur Railway Station in Jammu and Kashmir has been officially renamed after the martyr.

- The decision was announced by Union Minister Jitendra Singh on 21st August 2025, further affirming the government's dedication to recognizing the sacrifices of national heroes.

Key Points

- Renaming of Udhampur Railway Station: Captain Tushar Mahajan, who was awarded the MCTM (Military Cross for Gallantry), made the ultimate sacrifice during the Udhampur terrorist attack.
 - This gesture aims to honor his bravery and contribution to the nation.
- Captain Tushar Mahajan: Captain Tushar Mahajan was born on 20th April 1989, in Udhampur, Jammu & Kashmir.
 - He joined the National Defence Academy in 2006 and was later commissioned into the Parachute Regiment, joining the 9 Para(SF), an elite unit specializing in mountain warfare and counter-terrorism operations.
 - In 2016, Captain Mahajan led his team in the Pampore Operation to neutralize militants at the Entrepreneurship Development Institute (EDI).
 - Despite multiple gunshot wounds, he eliminated terrorists before succumbing to his injuries and was posthumously awarded the Shaurya Chakra for his bravery.

Process of Renaming Railway Stations in India

- Initiation: The state government initiates the renaming process, with the Chief Secretary submitting the proposal to the Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) after obtaining approval from the State Cabinet.

- Central Government Review: The MHA reviews the proposal, consulting relevant departments like the Ministry of Railways, Intelligence Bureau, Department of Posts, Geographical Survey of India, and Ministry of Earth Sciences. No-objection certificates are obtained, and MHA ensures the name is unique nationwide.
- Approval and Notification: Upon MHA's approval, it informs the Ministry of Railways. The state government issues a Gazette notification, and the Lieutenant Governor's office (in case of UTs) grants formal approval.
- Implementation by Railways: The Zonal Railway implements the name change after the notification, creates a new station code, updates the ticketing system, and changes physical signage at the station.
