The Home Ministry has expanded rules for cancelling Overseas Citizen of India (OCI) cards, allowing revocation if a holder is convicted with imprisonment of 2 years or more, or is charge-sheeted for offences punishable with 7 years or more.

- This change is introduced under clause (da) of Section 7D of the Citizenship Act, 1955.

Overseas Citizen of India Scheme

- About: The OCI scheme was launched in August 2005 by amending the Citizenship Act, 1955 to allow registration of Persons of Indian Origin (PIOs).
 - An OCI card is given to foreign passport holders of Indian origin and serves as a multiple-entry, multi-purpose, lifelong visa for visiting India.
 - However, OCI does not grant dual citizenship.
 - Cardholders are also exempt from registering with the local police, irrespective of their stay duration.
 - Currently, there are over 4.5 million OCI cardholders, with the largest populations in the US, UK, Australia and Canada.
- Eligibility: Citizens of India on/after 26 January 1950, or were eligible for citizenship on that date their descendants, and spouses (married for ≥ 2 years).
 - Individuals who are or have been citizens of Pakistan or Bangladesh are specifically excluded from the Overseas Citizenship of India (OCI) scheme.
- Restrictions:
 - No political rights (cannot vote, contest elections, or hold constitutional posts such as President, Vice President, Judge, etc), unlike Non-Resident Indians.
 - No right to public employment under Article 16 & not eligible for Indian government services, except as specially notified.
 - Special permits are required for research, missionary/journalistic work, mountaineering, and visits to protected/restricted areas.
- Revocation:
 - Fraud or Misrepresentation: OCI cards obtained through false information, concealment, or fraud can be canceled.
 - Disaffection to Constitution: Actions or statements against the Constitution of India may lead to cancellation.
 - Wartime Assistance to Enemy: Involvement in aiding the enemy during any war involving India can revoke the card.
 - Serious Criminal Offenses:
 - Sentenced to ≥ 2 years imprisonment.
 - Named in a chargesheet for offenses punishable with ≥ 7 years imprisonment.
 - Actions Prejudicial to India's Interests: Cancellation possible if deemed necessary for sovereignty, integrity, security, foreign relations, or public interest.
