

Review Meeting on 17 New Districts of Rajasthan

Why in News?

Recently, a review meeting was held to evaluate the status of the 17 new districts created during the earlier government's tenure in Rajasthan.

Key Points

- New Districts and Divisions: The new districts in Rajasthan include Anupgarh, Gangapur City, Kotputli, Balotra, Jaipur City, Khairthal, Beawar, Jaipur Rural, Neemkathana, Deeg, Jodhpur City, Phalodi, Didwana, Jodhpur Rural, Salumber, Dudu, Kekri, Santhore, and Shahpura.
 - Additionally, three new divisions—Banswara, Pali, and Sikar—have been created.
- Cost and Administration: Creating a district costs approximately Rs.2,000 crore (as per the review committee report).
 - The district of Pratapgarh, established in 2008, is still incomplete and administrative tasks remain pending.
- Future Considerations: Retired IAS officer Lalit K. Pawar has been reappointed to oversee the 17 new districts and gather public feedback.
 - He is responsible for preparing a factual and analytical report for further committee consideration.
