

International Sun Day

Source: PIB

The Government of India marked International Sun Day on 3rd May 2024, reaffirming its commitment to sustainable energy practices with a special focus on solar power.

- The Ministry of New & Renewable Energy organized a 'Run for Sun' Marathon at Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium, New Delhi, to raise awareness about the pivotal role of solar power in mitigating climate change.
 - The Ministry announced Solar Art, an All-India Intra-School Solar Art Competition, aiming to promote awareness of solar energy among school students through artistic expression.
- Solar Stops were set up in six Indian cities to educate citizens about the significance of solar energy through captivating installations and displays.
- International Sun Day is recognised globally as an opportunity to acknowledge the importance of the Sun and to promote solar energy as a sustainable and environmentally friendly energy source.

Read more: India's Solar Power Dream

PDF Reference URL: <https://www.drishtiias.com/printpdf/international-sun-day>